

INFORMATION TO THE MARKET

---

Banco do Brasil (BB) hereby informs that has been selected to be part of the New York Stock Exchange's Dow Jones Sustainability Index (DJSI) in the categories World portfolio and Emerging Markets portfolio.

2. BB was considered a world benchmark in the "Banks" sector in the aspects of Materiality, Policy Influence, Tax Strategy, Anti-crime Policy & Measures, Financial Stability and Systemic Risk, Environmental Reporting, Social Reporting, Corporate Citizenship and Philanthropy, Occupational Health and Safety and Financial Inclusion.

3. The index is reviewed on an annual basis and it covers the largest companies in the world, by market value based on free float, representing 24 businesses sectors. The analysis is based on questionnaires answered by companies and public domain information available in annual reports and investor relations websites.

4. BB's participation in the DJSI is a recognition of the international market for its sustainability performance and initiative to incorporate ESG aspects into corporate strategy, creating value for shareholders in the long-term through risk management associated with economic, environmental and social factors.

Brasília (DF), September 13th, 2019.

Daniel Alves Maria
Gerente Geral de Relações com Investidores